1. This application is a continuation-in-part of 09/123,492 which is a continuation-in-part of PCT/US97/01725 which is continuation-in-part of 08/593,677.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 13-14 and newly added claims 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as being anticipated by Nagakubo. (A), for reasons of record set forth in the office action mailed 7-15-2003.

Applicant's arguments filed 8-22-03 have been fully considered but are not found persuasive.

The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed 8-22-03 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 13 and newly added claims 15-16 based upon 35 USC 102(b) as set forth in the last Office action.

Applicant argues the declaration demonstrates that the DJ-1 antibody does not bind to the SP22 protein and all of the fragments and therefore the rejection should be removed.

However in reviewing the evidence, at least the peptide DTSLEEAKTQGPDV, derived from the SP-22 protein is specifically bound by the DJ-1 polyclonal antibody, thereby meeting the limitations of the currently recited claims drawn to functional fragments derived from the SP22 molecule.

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
